Prayer service tonight at 7.30 o'clock to which it is hoped you can come.

Sunday services. At 10.30 a. m., there will be a rally day service consisting of readings, recitations and special songs which will be given by the Bible school and choir. We especially urge all our people to be present. Strangers and any not identified with another school are invited to join with us in this service and in the school that will follow. Special services are to be held for two weeks beginning Monday night, Oct. 9th. The pastor will be assisted by neighboring pastors. All are invited. The members of the church are asked to so plan their time, if possible, that they can be at all the meetings. This is one way in which all can help.

The W. H. M. society met with Mrs. Smithers Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 26. In the unavoidable absence of the president and vice-president, Mrs. Jenness presided. After devotionals the society settled some matters of business, one of which was to send a box of fruit and jelly to the Deaconess Home in Barre; these were to be brought to our next meeting. Anyone who can spare a can we will be glad to receive it. The program was under the direction of Mrs. Witt, and consisted of readings by Mrs. Ordway, Mrs. Bartlett and Mrs. Smithers. Quotations were given by all present. An enjoyable hour was spent and refreshments were served by the hostess.

Father-in-law—So you are beginning to find that married life has its troubles? Daughter-in-law—Well, yes. Jack sometimes simply won't listen to reason. Father-in-law—The young rascal! He ought to be ashamed of himself. It isn't every married man that has the chance. —Boston Transcript.

THERE'S one thing about clothes that young men ought to be particular about

STYLE

NOT the freakish, faddish ideas you see in some clothes; that isn't style. There's something quite different from that in real style. A stylishly dressed man is one whose clothes fit, and who has an "air" of being well dressed. The "lines" of the garments are right. That's the thing so many young fellows just miss; it's the fault of "cheap" clothes generally.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

are style designers; every detail of a coat is carefully planned to give to the wearer the right air; the proper effect. It's a valuable asset to any young man; it counts for a good deal more in his business success than most young men realize. And the only way to get it is to go where it is, and get clothes that have it.

Varsity Fifty Five Models

for young men are designed with the utmost care to all details of correct style. See our Varsity Fifty Five Model Overcoats. If you want a nice clean cut overcoat for auto wear, or a nice dress overcoat for old or young men let us show you some, even if don't want to purchase now.
